KENTUCKY
The Bluegrass State

TENNESSEE
The Volunteer State

PHILLIPS 66

KENTUCKY. Capital: Frankfort
Area: 40,395 square miles; rank, 37th
Statehood: June 1, 1792; 15th state

22 Bardstown (D-9)—Stephen Foster wrote "My Old Kentucky Home" while visiting at Federal Hill, now in My Old Kentucky Home State Park. St. Joseph's Cathedral has paintings donated by the King of France and is the first Catholic cathedral west of the Allegheny Mountains.

2 Crab Orchard (D-11)—The William Whitley House, built in 1783, was the first brick house in the state.

3 Cumberland Gap National Historical Park (F-13)—Daniel Boone and Thomas Walker scouted the way for pioneers who came to Kentucky through this gap in the mountains.

4 Fairview (F-6)—A tall monument marks the birthplace of Jefferson Davis, Confederate President.

5 Fort Knox (D-9)—Patton Museum of Cavalry and Armor contains captured enemy weapons and equipment used by American forces from the Civil War through the Korean period.

6 Frankfort (C-10)—The State Capitol and Floral Clock, the Historical Society Museum, and Daniel Boone's Grave in Frankfort Cemetery are part of Kentucky's heritage.

22 Harrodsburg (D-10)—Old Fort Harrod State Park contains a rebuilt pioneer town sheltered by a stockade, the log cabin in which Lincoln's parents were married, and Mansion Museum.

8 Henderson (D-4)—The Audubon Museum is in the John James Audubon State Park.

9 Hodgenville (D-9)—Abraham Lincoln Birthplace National Historic Site is 3 miles south.

10 Lexington (C-11)—Blue Grass horse farms and Henry Clay's Ashland are at the heart of old Kentucky. Among the outstanding farms is Greentree, which is open to the public on weekdays.

11 Louisville (C-9)—Churchill Downs is famous as the home of the Kentucky Derby. Historic buildings include the Jefferson County Court House, and Farmington and Locust Grove mansions.

12 Mammoth Cave National Park (E-8)—150 miles of passages make this an underground labyrinth.

13 Paris (C-12)—Duncan Tavern, built in 1788, once entertained Daniel Boone.

14 Wickliffe (E-3)—1,000 years ago Mound Builders built a city, which has been unearthed by archaeologists on the northwestern outskirts of Wickliffe.

For information on points of interest write to Department of Public Information, Travel Promotion, Capitol Annex Building, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601

TENNESSEE. Capital: Nashville
Area: 42,246 square miles; rank, 34th
Statehood: June 1, 1796; 16th state

15 Chattanooga (I-10)—Lookout Mountain looms over the city. The steepest passenger incline in the world leads to the top, scene of the Civil War "Battle above the Clouds." Rock City Gardens contains 10 acres of trails and vistas atop the mountain. Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park preserves the sites of bitter Civil War battles.

16 Etowah (I-11)—At the Tennessee Village of 1800, south of town, log cabins house museums.

17 Fort Donelson National Military Park and Cemetery (F-5)—An auto tour takes visitors through the fort, the cemetery, and the Dover Hotel where General Buckner surrendered to U. S. Grant.

18 Great Smoky Mountains National Park (H-13)—At the crest of the Appalachians, the park is famed for its scenic natural wonders and for the enclaves of mountain people who live much as they did in the past. Peaks rise into the blue haze which gives the mountains their name.

19 Greeneville (G-14)—The tailor shop, home and grave of President Andrew Johnson are preserved in the Andrew Johnson National Historic Site.

20 Knoxville (H-12)—The colonial frame Blount Mansion was the center of social life in territorial days. Other historic houses are Craighead-Jackson House and Ramsey House.

21 Memphis (I-1)—This atmospheric river city is known for Beale Street, birthplace of the blues, the levee, the Cotton Exchange, the Brooks Memorial Art Gallery, and the Memphis Museum.

22 Nashville (G-7)—The city grew up around Fort Nashborough, now reconstructed. The limestone Capitol, Andrew Jackson's beautiful Hermitage, and the replica of the Parthenon are other attractions.

23 Oak Ridge (H-12)—The Museum of Atomic Energy shows the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

24 Shiloh National Military Park and Cemetery (I-4)—Bloody fighting marked this first great battle of the Western campaign. An auto tour begins at the visitor center.

25 Smyrna (H-8)—Sam Davis, young Confederate scout, was captured by the Federals and shot as a spy. His home is preserved in the memory of a boy who would not reveal his friends to the enemy.

26 Waynesboro (I-5)—The nearby Natural Bridge was used by the Cherokees for councils.
